UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE MINT SET OF COMMEMORATIVE STAMPS 1983

The Printing
The birth of Kappa Kappa Gamma's postal card was produced by the Government Printing Office in 1979. Each sheet has 18 impressions of the design before any individual postal card. Quality of the printing is checked during the press run by Government Printing Office staff Thomas Sorenson, left, and Billy McWhorter, right, making one of the impressions.

The Engraving
The original hand engraved steel die... after six weeks of careful labor. Summertime is the engraving, a photo reduction of the original drawing by artist Paul Cella, and his expert wood during the etching process and engraver's tools—wood-handled galleys and a black-handled hammer.
